MAH JONGG

Tutor: Xuzhuang Li

Mah Jongg has been known as the Chinese national game for centuries. The beauty of the tiles, the variety of rules, the eastern tradition and culture in the playing makes the game logical, competitive and addictive. Contrary to common belief, it is easy to learn this fascinating game, but as in many other games, the more one learns, the more one realizes how much one needs to learn. The Saturday workshop will show you how to play the game in a joyful and encouraging style, the simple and straight-forward Chinese national and international standard ways of scoring will be introduced with the progress of the course. All levels are welcome, those who attended 6th November 2016 workshop will be treated as improvers and taught differently.

ADDITIONAL INFO. (What to bring/costs on the day)

A Mah Jongg set if you have one.
